

msufame

Consortium for Advanced Psychology Training 2013-2014 Board of Directors

John B. Molidor, PhD, Chairman, CAPT Board of Directors

CEO and President, MSU Flint Area Medical Education
Assistant Dean and Professor, MSU College of Human Medicine

Dr. Molidor has worked for Michigan State University 's College of Human Medicine since 1978. During this time, he has served as the Dean of Admissions, the Dean of Student Affairs and currently, as the Assistant Dean and President/CEO for the Flint Campus. He received his Bachelor of Arts from the College of St. Thomas; and his Masters and Doctorate from Michigan State University. In addition, he has written numerous articles on the interviewing and resident selection process and is considered an expert in the area of interviewing techniques.

Barbara Wolf, PhD, Clinical Health Psychology Training Director, CAPT

Director of CAPT Fellowship Programs and Director of Behavioral Medicine and Family Medicine Education at McLaren - Flint
Associate Professor, Family Medicine and Psychiatry, MSU College of Human Medicine

Dr. Wolf received her doctorate from the Union Institute in 1986 and completed a two year post-doctoral fellowship in Primary Care Health Psychology at MSU College of Human Medicine/Genesys Regional Medical Center. She is a member of the American Psychological Association, Michigan's Women's Psychologists, and Society of Teachers of Family Medicine. Her areas of professional interest include women's mental health issues, dissociative disorders, mindfulness meditation, and medical education.

Kirk Stucky, PsyD, ABPP, Rp Cn, Rehabilitation Psychology Training Director, CAPT

Director of CAPT Fellowship Programs, Director of Rehabilitation Psychology, and Vice-Chair for Department of Psychology, Hurley Medical Center
Assistant Adjunct Professor, Psychiatry, MSU College of Human Medicine

Dr. Stucky received his doctoral degree in clinical psychology from Florida Tech in 1995. He completed a two year post doctoral fellowship in medical psychology in 1997. He is board certified in clinical neuropsychology and rehabilitation psychology. Dr. Stucky also serves as a consultant to various outpatient rehabilitation facilities & medical groups. Primary interests are neuropsychology, rehabilitation, traumatic brain injury, and the hospital practice of medical psychology.

Mark Vogel, PhD, ABPP, Clinical Psychologist, CAPT

Director, CAPT Fellowship Programs at Genesys Regional Medical Center
Associate Professor, Family Practice and Psychiatry, MSU College of Human Medicine

Dr. Vogel obtained his doctoral degree in clinical psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology-Los Angeles. After completing a two year fellowship in Primary Care Health Psychology at MSU/CHM - Genesys Regional Medical Center, he served as Associate Director for the program for five years before accepting his current position. He is the former chair of the Group on Behavioral Science in the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine. Since 1994 he has been executive director of the Association for the Behavioral Sciences and Medical Education. His area of professional interests include integrated primary care, patient centered medical home, and safety and quality improvement in healthcare. He is board certified in clinical health psychology through ABPP.